Weekend Retreat – Barossa Valley

Writing a new chapter:

Contemporary Legal and Mental Health Issues Affecting Australia's Indigenous Peoples

The Australian & New Zealand Association of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law (ANZAPPL) South Australian branch are delighted to announce a weekend seminar on the 12th & 13th of September 2009, with a focus on indigenous mental health and the criminal justice system.

To be held at the Novotel Barossa Valley Resort, the weekend seminar is designed to be a relaxed and informative occasion for members of the three professions and interested others to share ideas and learn about contemporary issues in this area.

The focus for the weekend will be current developments in our understanding of the mental health needs of Indigenous peoples, and how such needs interface with the criminal justice system. Speakers for the weekend include professionals with significant experience and expertise in the area along with perspectives from people who have been involved in the criminal justice system.

Speakers for the ANZAPPL weekend retreat include:

The Hon. Ted Mullighan QC (Patron)
Judge Peggy Fulton Hora (Ret) - Adelaide Thinker in Residence
Judge Wayne Chivell of the District Court and former Coroner
Christopher Charles - General Counsel, Aboriginal Legal Rights Movement
Edward Jolley - resident Barrister at Port Augusta
Dr Maria Tomasic - Consultant Psychiatrist, Forensic Mental Health Services
Associate Professor Andrew Day - Centre for Offender Reintegration, Deakin University, School of Psychology
Rosemary Wanganeen – Director & Counsellor, Australian Institute for Loss & Grief
Frank Lampard (OAM), Executive Director, Aboriginal Prisoner and Offender Support Services Inc
Dale Agius - Aboriginal Programs Officer, DCS Rehabilitation Programs Branch
